

63RD CONGRESS, IN SESSION TWO YEARS, ADJOURNS

Many Important Measures Are Crowded Out at the Last Moment

SHIP PURCHASE BILL LOSES

Next Congress Probably Will Be Convened Early in October

WASHINGTON, March 4.—After two years of almost continuous session, the Sixty-third congress, which revised the tariff and the currency system of the nation, supplemented the trust laws, created an income tax and experienced the first popular election of United States senators, ended at noon today.

When gavel fell in the house and senate, signaling adjournment, they marked the close of half of President Wilson's Administration, the first under domination of the Democratic party since 1885. Strenuous scenes, however, the fading hours, devoted chiefly to completing the appropriations for subsistence to the government. Two important measures, the postoffice and Indian supply bills, failed in the final legislative crush after desperate efforts had been made to save them. In the emergency occasioned by their failure, joint resolutions were passed and signed by the president continuing in force appropriations of the present year.

While tired senators and representatives were devoting their energies to final, essential, President Wilson spent more than an hour in his room at the Capitol surrounded by members of his cabinet, signing the last fruits of legislation. The president found time in the midst of this task to greet senators and representatives and to make the occasion entirely one of congratulations, making no reference to projects which had failed.

No Extra Session Now.

Scores of members of both houses joined tonight in an exodus from Washington, taking with them assurance that no extra session would be called at least before fall. Despite the fact that many important bills failed of consideration because of the time limit, the president's veto of the ship purchase bill, it was generally understood that congress would be given a rest and the country a respite from legislation. It was regarded as extremely probable, however, that the Sixty-fourth congress would be summoned in October in order to be able to adjourn for the usual conventions and the national campaign of 1916.

Beside the government ship purchase bill, important measures which were forced over until another time included the Philippine enlarged self-government bill, rural credit legislation, the bill to prohibit interstate commerce in goods manufactured by child labor, and the conservation bills energetically urged by the president. There also failed a resolution which contemplated an investigation into revolutionary campaigns in Pennsylvania. It (Continued on Page Two.)

HINTON MINE DEAD MAY YET REACH 180

39 Bodies Recovered; Little Hope Entertained for Recovery of Others

HINTON, W. Va., March 4.—With the probability that the death toll will reach nearly 180, rescue crews today continued the search of the workings of the Layland mine wrecked by an explosion Tuesday morning. Late tonight 39 bodies had been recovered.

Recovered bodies were carried as much as a mile to the entrance around which crowds of relatives and friends of missing men remained on continuous watch. A houseful of bodies recovered today, including a young man, a young woman, and a young child, were being worked on. It is known, however, that a dozen or more young men from surrounding towns also were working there. ## FORMER OFFICIALS MUST MAKE GOOD SCHOOL OVERDRAFTS

Governor Carlson Says Funds Were Overdrawn by About $124,000

DENVER, March 4.—Routine matters occupied the attention of Colorado legislators and executive today. The announcement by Governor Carlson that officials of the last administration had drawn from the state fund money in excess of the state revenue for the period in the redemption of current expense warrants, and that steps would be taken to collect the amount from the bondsmen of former Treasurer Luddy and former Auditor Kuehner, aroused much interest. The overdraft, it is stated, amounts to approximately $124,000.

In explaining the manner in which the overdrafts occurred, it is stated that taxes to meet the bills for a given year have in the past been paid the following year. According to Governor Carlson, the last administration issued and cashed warrants much in excess of the taxes to be collected.

Even members of Representative W. W. Howell of Denver, the house speaker, who authorized the overdraft, are being asked to contribute to the expense of its inquiry into the overdraft. It is stated, however, that the overdraft is a "package" containing currency.

Medical Bill Killed.

By striking out portions of the bill, which would make the house practice of killing the measure, leaving it in a form similar to the present law, the bill sought to compel physicians, osteopaths, and similar practitioners to take the same examination required of all other doctors.

The house also killed the bill making the state a separate political district. The measure, which would divide the number of representatives to the legislature on the basis of population, was defeated by a vote of 18 to 20.

The senate passed on third reading the bill permitting persons absent from their homes to mail their ballots to the judges of election in their precinct. It also passed the eight-hour bill for employees of state penal institutions. A similar bill was killed two weeks ago. The Robinson bill, taking away from the supreme court the power to provide rules and regulations for the district court when preparing a case for review by the supreme court, was discussed, but no action was taken. A large number of the day in the senate was occupied in committee work.

SETTLERS MISSING; MASSACRE FEARED

Party of 13 May Have Fallen Into Hands of Hostile Piute Warriors

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, March 4.—Anxiety exists at Bluff, Utah, today regarding the welfare of a party of 12 white persons and one Indian who left Bluff yesterday morning for Kayenta, Ariz., according to a special report from Bluff to the Denver News. The party is headed by John Wetherill and consists of six white men, two women, four children and a Navajo Indian interpreter. The party had to pass through the danger zone to reach its destination and Wetherill asked Marshal Nehler to send a rescue party if Wetherill did not appear in about 20 days. He is trading most about 20 miles from Bluff today.

Although the Colorado line from Bluff to Mexican Hill was in good order today, no report had been received from the party since the afternoon of March 2. Wetherill and his party are confident that all of them are still alive and that they will be rescued in a few days. Wetherill said that he had been told by a Piute warrior that the party had been captured and that a massacre was being planned against them.

WESTERN RAILROADS ASK RATE INCREASE

Contend the Present Freight Tariffs Are Inadequate to Pay Dividends

THE ANTI-MONOPOLY Contending that the freight between their terminals and expense are becoming so small as to be unable to afford their operating expenses, the western railroads began today their campaign to have their freight rates increased by the interstate commerce commission for an increase in freight rates which, it was said, would add $10,000,000 to their annual revenue. The argument was of a general character. Later the rates on commodities such as grain, live stock, packing house products, coal and fruits and vegetables, are to be considered in detail.

The chief contention of the roads, as outlined by C. E. Schaff, president of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas road, is that the present rates are inadequate to enable them to pay at least 7 per cent dividends, which a market over that forshadows, that at present many of the roads are not able to pay more than a percent and some of them cannot pay anything at all. Their small profits, they say, are being used for the payment of their debts and for the payment of their taxes. They are asking for a 7 per cent dividend, which they say is a reasonable rate for a company of their size.

After listening to the arguments of the railroads, the interstate commerce commission will hold a public hearing on the matter. The commission will also hear from the shippers, who are opposed to the increase. The commission will also hear from the public, who are interested in the matter.

Not Due to War.

The railroads say that the increase is not due to the war. They say that the increase is due to the fact that the cost of operating the roads has increased. They say that the cost of operating the roads has increased because of the fact that the cost of operating the roads has increased.

Need Is Imperative.

Mr. Feltner, president of the need of the interstate commerce commission, said that the need of the interstate commerce commission is imperative. He said that the need of the interstate commerce commission is imperative because of the fact that the need of the interstate commerce commission is imperative.

CRUCIAL PERIOD IN WAR OF NATIONS IS REACHED; TURK FORTS HOLD OUT

Anglo-French Fleet Continues to Pour Terrible Rain of Fire on the Dardanelles

Russians Waging Titanic Struggle to Force Back the Teuton Hordes; Claim Important Success Over Austrians in Carpathians and Parts of Eastern Galicia

LONDON, March 4.—Heavy fighting in Russian Poland, in the Carpathians and in the Champagne district and the Vosges in France, the continuation of the bombardment of the forts in the Dardanelles by the Anglo-French fleet, and the sinking of the German submarine U-8 by destroyers of the allied squadron off Dover, are the features of the campaign in the war of the nations, concerning which, however, details are meager.

The Russians apparently are forcing the operations to the north of Grodno in Poland, although there are evidences that the German troops are resisting stubbornly. In the Bobr river region the contending forces are in close contact, and there the fighting has been hard to hand. Particularly fierce also have been the encounters to the north, near Mlava.

The Russians report the capture in the Carpathians and in eastern Galicia of more than 2,000 men and 18 machine guns in one day. Along the western front, the French are continuing their attacks in Champagne and the Argonne, but beyond these the only movement of any consequence has been made north of Arras, where the Germans succeeded in capturing a newly constructed French trench.

Future of War at Stake.

The battles in the west and for possession of the Dardanelles are creating much interest, as they are considered to be a very marked turning point in the future of the war. Having pressed the Germans back from Przemyśl toward Mlava, the Russians are now exerting their greatest efforts, and according to their own accounts, with success, to drive them back in the districts further to the north from west of Grodno and in the same direction from Grodno to Lemberg. These movements, if successful, might materially alter the situation in the east, and would be a very important step in the campaign.

Battle of Dardanelles.

Heavy bombardments keep up an almost continuous bombardment against the Dardanelles forts. They have attacked the outer forts and the new attacking the forts which line the narrow strait, which is the most difficult point to defend.

The destruction of what the British army calls the "Dardanelles" is a very important step in the campaign. The British army is now attacking the forts which line the narrow strait, which is the most difficult point to defend.

FINAL CURTAIN FALLS FOR S. N. NYE, ONE OF WEST'S BEST KNOWN THEATRICAL MEN

Death Yesterday Follows General Breakdown in Health and Paralytic Stroke in 1913

The last curtain has dropped on the life of Sam Nye, the actor and dramatist, who died yesterday afternoon at 12:25 o'clock, at his home, 627 North Nevada avenue. Death ended a career that in years to come will have left its impressions on the city and its citizens.

Funeral Sunday at Elks Club.

The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Elks club, where the interment will be in Evergreen cemetery. Mr. Nye was one of the organizers of Colorado Springs lodge No. 248 and held the first membership card given out, being the first initiate.

There was nothing of the theatrical about his passing, but rather strong those old time friends of his when the rates of members, coming back and in a remembered the ever happy and generous man of the past. The actor's fall came the lack of signs at the time he was a stroke of paralytic following from which he never recovered. His strength gradually ebbed, and during the last few days of death had been expected momentary. As he lay there, the end came when the wife and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. ## BRITISH PRESS APPEALS TO AMERICA TO PUT SELF IN GREAT BRITAIN'S SHOES

LONDON, March 5 (Friday).—The London morning newspapers continue today editorial appeals to the United States to put herself in Great Britain's place in considering the question of British reprisals against Germany. The Daily Mail admits that technically the British action amounts to proclaiming a blockade without incurring its risks.

but contends that this course was deliberately chosen because, while involving no new principle of international law, it is calculated in practice to prove more lenient to the neutrals than a rigorous blockade.

The Morning Post says: "We put it to the United States once more that the allies in fighting this war are fighting the cause of the United States and all neutral nations. A victorious Germany means a threatened America and against such a threat the Monroe doctrine would be no more effective as a defense than her neutrality as to Belgium."

The Morning Post concedes that the United States made her proposal in the identical note to Germany and Great Britain with the best of intentions, but says it is impossible for Great Britain to continue them. It suggests for meeting the American criticism that the British government should make regular its position by declaring a formal blockade and denouncing the declarations of Paris and London, so that all parties would know exactly where they stand.

The Times, Washington correspondent, referring to the subject today, says in referring to the American press comment:

"It is evident that the translation of our new policy into deeds should be preceded by the clearest possible pre-arrangement, not only of the nature of that policy, but moral and legal and what may be called our chronological justification for it."

Hills and other states which had been recommended by a senate committee. Very little general legislation is carried in the appropriation bill. Much was proposed but most of the measures practically were cleared of such provisions by points of order. The post-office bill, which failed to pass, contained more new legislation than any other.

Recess Investigations.

Before adjournment, Congress provided for several important investigations to be carried on during recess. A committee will continue the inquiry into alleged lobbying in the ship purchase bill. A committee will study rural credits legislation, and members of the senate appointed a special committee to recommend revision of senate rules, with a view to establishing election of debate to prevent filibusters.

A mass of miscellaneous legislation hurried through in the last days included claims bills, bills for public buildings, fish-cultural stations and bridge and minor amendments to various federal statutes. Most of these were put through on the initiative of individual members and passed without objection.

The appropriation committee today began the work of tabulating the amounts of the various bills which took money out of the treasury during the session. It will be several days before an accurate tabulation is made, but the total appropriations are estimated at about $1,120,000,000.

The annual appropriation bills which failed passed a considerable trouble. After the Indian bill had made its debut, it reached the house just 10 minutes before final adjournment. A filibuster was immediately initiated and it forced the withdrawal of the conference report on the bill.

Moon Raises Protest.

The joint resolution which continued the current postoffice appropriations brought forth a protest from Representative Moon of Tennessee, chairman of the postoffice committee. He declared his committee had not been consulted in regard to the decision of the leaders to abandon the bill and that the joint resolution had been put through the house in his absence.

"Representatives of railroad interests and railroad attorneys," he said, "have been active at both ends of the Capitol in efforts to prevent the passage of this bill."

Representative Fitzgerald declared that the decision to abandon the measure had been reached only after it became apparent that it could not pass, and that Representative Moon was fully cognizant of the circumstances. Just before the senate adjourned, resolutions thanking Vice President Marshall for his services as presiding officer of the senate were adopted.

"May I be permitted to say," said the vice president in closing the session, "that when I came here two years ago, it was the first time I ever stepped my foot inside of a legislative hall. I know that I have made mistakes, errors, some times of the head, but thank God, I can look you in the face and say to you there has never been an error of the heart."

In the house, Speaker Clark delivered a formal farewell to the members, and resolutions were adopted thanking the speaker, Majority Leader Underwood and Minority Leader Mann for their untiring efforts throughout the long session.

Greatest Congress Ever Held.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—Speaker Clark issued a statement tonight briefly reviewing the work of the Sixty-third congress, which, he said, would go down in history as one of the greatest and most remarkable of all congresses. Because it had put on the books more constructive legislation and was in session more days than any other. The statement added:

"The president has managed so far, under very difficult circumstances, to keep the country out of war, which would be the greatest calamity that could happen. Let us hope that he will succeed in keeping us out in the very critical circumstances in which we find ourselves living."

"It seems to me that every good citizen, without regard to politics, will endorse him in his efforts to keep us out of war and his efforts to maintain neutrality. Taken all in all, the administration and the congress have done a vast amount of good work. On it we appeal confidently to the country."

"The signs of the times indicate that business, large and small, is recovering from the condition into which the transatlantic war hurled us. To a careful reader of the newspapers the prospects appear to be that by the Fourth of July every man and woman in America who desires work at a living wage will find employment."

AMERICAN LEGION IS INDORSED BY COURT

Justice Gavegan Alters His Action and Approves New Organization

NEW YORK, March 4.—Justice Gavegan of the supreme court approved today the certificate of incorporation of the American Legion, now being organized as a first line reserve for instant call in case of war. Justice Gavegan at first declined to sign the certificate because he was not satisfied as to the particular object for which incorporation was asked. Subsequently he received a call from the promoters and after a conference with them acted favorably on the application.

The purposes of the legion are set forth in seven articles which state that it is being formed to organize American citizens who are not in the military or naval service of the United States or of any of the several states and who are specifically qualified to serve the United States in the event of mobilization of war.

There are to be five directors and the five incorporators are to serve as such until the newly incorporated body meets. The incorporators are Alexander M. White of Brooklyn, John T. Davies, Jr. of Babylon, N. Y., Theodore Roosevelt, Jr. of New York City, and E. Ormonde Power of New York City. Headquarters are to be in this city.

GERMANS FIGHTING WITH LIQUID FIRE

Spray Burning Oil on French Trenches, Which Causes Painful Wounds

PARIS, March 4.—The effect of the burning oil and chemical sprayed by the Germans upon the French advanced trenches in the woods of Malancourt, which was mentioned in a recent official communication (February 27) is described in La Liberté by a nurse at the front. Incidentally, it has been learned that this new instrument of warfare, which is a German invention, was patented in France.

The nurse was at a railway station when the soldier victims arrived. Their faces were badly burned, their limbs blistered and their uniforms charred. A soldier, who acted as spokesman, told the nurse of their experience. He said that at nightfall, after a relatively calm day, the Germans began to attack with flaming liquid. Incidentally, at first, the French soon discovered that this liquid was being directed against them.

Special appliances were used in some instances and at times an apparatus resembling a fire engine was used. Incendiary grenades were also hurled by the Germans. The trenches were soon in flames.

"None of us could escape this torrent of fire," said the soldier. "Our clothes flowed with oil and some of us became living torches. Surrounded by flames, we had to retire, but not until our comrades of the second line were ready to resist the attack of the enemy, which began six minutes after."

"A bayonet counter-attack by the French was carried out with veritable fury, so great was their desire for revenge."

At the end of the combat the Germans had lost 150 killed and 60 taken prisoners.

AUSTRIANS SUFFER TERRIBLE HARSHIPS

LONDON, March 5 (Friday).—Reports received here from various sources tell of the terrible losses suffered by Austria in the recent fighting. ## HOW THE BRAZIL NUT GROWS

Twenty or More Are Packed in a Large Hard Shell.

From the Kansas City Star.

One of the hardest nuts to crack, yet one of the nicest to eat, is the Brazil nut, which grows in Brazil and other parts of tropical South America. It is a surprising growth. With such a hard shell one would think that it does not need much protection. But the nuts grow in clusters, 20 or more packed together inside a great hard shell. The Brazil nut is the seed of the tree, and this hard shell encloses it as the fruit of the peach encloses the hard stone. The outer shell in which the Brazil nut grows is the color of a coconut and quite round.

When the nut is ripe it falls to the ground. The tree grows more than a hundred feet high, so, as we may imagine, it is dangerous to walk under the trees when the nuts begin to fall.

TOWN IS THREATENED BY INCENDIARY FIRE

WEEKLY, Cal. March 4.—A fire which threatened the entire town destroyed today 25,000,000 feet of lumber in the yards of the Wood Lumber company. Special trains from nearby towns brought fire fighters, apparatus and explosives to blow up buildings to check the flames. A stretch of open ground saved the town after several cottages had been destroyed. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

entirely were penniless, and a benefit performance was given under Mr. Nye's management to raise funds. Finally, Mainhall had to leave and his wife died a few weeks later. Nye bought two lots at Riverfront, where Mrs. Mainhall was buried. Others were buried there, sometimes with the aid of the actors' fund, but generally through S. N. Nye. The last person buried in this plot was a Mrs. Henry Nash of Ohio, a cousin. For a time he worked in a drug store in Zanesville, Ohio, and then to the show business. He organized the first minstrel show in America, the "Albion Blossom Minstrel," and toured the country. Whenever Nye came to Colorado Springs with his minstrel show, the two used to spend most of their time talking about the miseries of the early days.

Field arranged his annual tour in order to be in Colorado Springs every year the week before Easter, resting on Good Friday, and would stay here Sunday, remaining over Sunday. This was a thin three days to spend with his old friend. It was a method of looking at things that attracted attention all over the country.

In 1880, Nye's health failed and he came to Colorado Springs. Shortly before he had married the widow of a wealthy merchant. She had two children, one of whom survived. Two children are left to Mr. and Mrs. Nye, who died last fall.

Now they worked here for the Robinson Drug company and remained there a year. At that time living Howard J. F. Hemming and R. F. Crowley built the opera house, of which Nye was one of the managers. With the exception of a year, 1885, he was in active charge of the house until a year ago. Almost every prominent actor of the last generation and many of the present day were brought to Colorado Springs by Nye. Barrett, Jefferson, Kean, Kean and Her, Badger, Madison, Gage, and others. Nye was the person who brought them to the town. He was a man of great energy and a great deal of business. He was a man of great energy and a great deal of business. prominent in amateur theatricals. He was the first passenger agent of both the Colorado Midland and Short Line railroads. He was closely associated with Irving Howbert, and put out the first advertising for the railroads that Mr. Howbert was active in building.

In 1900, with H. S. Rogers, Nye managed the Broadway casino, which was then a lively and popular place of entertainment. At the close of the summer, the Short Line had finished its line above the Cheyenne canon, and Nye managed excursions there for the people to view the new line. The wonder of all railroad building. Mr. Nye helped organize the famous "Silver Creek" for theatrical companies, which Peter McQuinn controlled. At various times he managed theaters in Pueblo, Leadville and Trinidad, and one summer managed the Colorado Springs baseball club in the Western league. He went to "Cripple Creek" only when fortunes were being made, but did not profit himself in those ventures. He grubstaked W. A. Wolcott, a young mining engineer, in the fall of 1910, and the Midnight claim in San Juan, which was struck in his name. Later he had stock holdings in the Anchorage and other mines that at one time represented a large sum, but he made little money from them.

AMERICAN PACKERS PROTEST SEIZURE OF SHIPS BY ENGLAND

Several Cargoes Being Held Without Explanation by British Officials

LONDON, March 4. (Friday). The protest of the American packers against the seizure of ships by England was today on the steps that Great Britain will take to enforce her declared intention to stop trade to and from Germany. The protestants on the declaration hinge on an order in council which, it has been promised, will be issued soon, but no definite date for the issuance of which has been announced.

Officials make it clear at every opportunity that the mode of making reprisals will be outlined in such a manner that further negotiations will not be concluded insofar as the declaration affects neutrals. Meanwhile foodstuffs from the United States destined to neutral countries continue to be delayed without explanation being given which satisfy shippers.

Chicago packers are much annoyed over the delay at Liverpool since February 20 of the Norwegian steamer Vitula. There are no prospects for the release of the steamer, although it is said every effort possible has been made to comply with the British requirements. All the goods in the Vitula are consigned to the Netherlands Overseas Trust at Rotterdam. The ship was inspected by the British consul at New York before her departure and her batches were sealed. Owners of the Vitula's cargo gave specific guarantees that the food was for Holland consumption, yet the ship is still being held.

May Stop Shipments.

The delay affecting the products of American packers are declared to be so inexplicable that the European agents of the packers probably will advise that shipments on March contracts with European neutral countries be not made unless Great Britain definitely defines her policy toward such cargoes in advance of their sailing. The packers, it is said, did everything within their power to make the Vitula conform to the supposed British regulations and have repeatedly protested through Walter Hines Pace, the American ambassador, concerning the delay of the steamer, but without result.

Great Britain is known to be trying to get Denmark to effect an organization similar to the Netherlands Overseas Trust in order to secure guarantees that goods shipped to Denmark will not be forwarded to Germany. The Danish law prevents such an organization, but it is said that it is likely that legislation will be enacted to make one possible. Much of the present delay to American foodstuffs consigned to neutral countries is believed to be attributable to a desire of Great Britain to induce Denmark to guarantee that they will not be re-shipped to Germany.

The prize court hearing on the cargo of the American steamer Wilhelmina has been set for March 15.

BUSINESS POOR; CALL IN THE ARSON SQUAD

Regular Syndicate Conducted in Northwest to "Aid" Merchants When Trade Is Dull

SEATTLE, Wash., March 4. (Friday). That an "arson syndicate" has existed in the Pacific northwest for the past two years was brought out today in testimony in the superior court in the trial of E. Rosenthal, a tailor, charged with arson in the second degree. For a few hundred dollars, according to witnesses, a man hired a business was not prospering could arrange to have his place burned in such a manner that detection was almost impossible. When the insurance was paid the arson syndicate, it was said, would collect its share.

It was also asserted that the "syndicate" conducted a blackmailing business as a side line. If a small merchant was burned out by a fire of that kind, it was testified, he would be approached by a representative of the "syndicate" who would demand payment under threat to give the authorities information as to the cause of the fire. Rosenthal, whose place of business was burned before Rosenthal testified that he was present when Rosenthal arrived with a man known as "Ske" Kelly, representing the syndicate, to have Rosenthal's store burned. The price, Rosenthal said, was $100,000, paid $1000 to have his store burned, he said.

Don Ehrlich, another alleged member of the syndicate, and Kelly, both of whom are alleged to have conferred to the police before the trial, have fled.

Sociability Tourists Will Get Away April 8 Party Must Start Early to Advertise Region

About 15 business men met yesterday afternoon at the chamber of commerce and discussed plans for the sociability run to Chicago next month. The tour received the hearty support and cooperation of all present, and the entry of six cars is assured, with the promise of others to come.

Leonard E. Curtis, president of the Colorado Springs Automobile club and a member of the state highway commission, attended the meeting and spoke highly of the plan and the value it would have from an advertising and publicity standpoint.

According to present plans the motorists will leave here April 8, traveling east over the Pikes Peak, Chicago and Ocean highway as far as Chicago, and returning by way of the Santa Fe or National Old Trails route. En route it is planned to visit Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Columbus and Dayton. On the return, the motorists would pass through Kansas City and St. Louis. A definite itinerary will be worked out within the next week.

The hotel interests were represented at the meeting by J. W. Atkinson of the Acacia hotel, who also is chairman of the advertising committee, which has charge of the tour, and H. H. Stevens of the Alta Vista. Mr. Atkinson announced that he would send an automobile and started the ball rolling. The next man to come in was O. P. Snyder, part owner and manager of the Cave of the Winds, thus assuring Manitou and the scenic attractions of the Pikes Peak region at least one entry. Mr. Stevens probably will have an entry, but has not definitely decided. It was announced that Leadville and Cripple Creek interests probably would enter machines. The chamber of commerce will have an official car and it is hoped the Manitou Springs Commercial club will enter. A. W. Markshoffel, president of the Markshoffel Motor company, represented the interests of the garage owners of the city, and President E. C. Kirkwood of the chamber of commerce and several other business men were present.

It was pointed out by Mr. Atkinson that the tour would benefit practically all the interests of the region if representative cars were entered. The class of people that will visit Colorado Springs in 1915, he said, is one that will bring prosperity to the city. The tourists will stay at hotels and put their cars in garages, spending money here. In former years many of the tourists have been satisfied with roadside camps. The chief purpose of the tour will be to boost the Pikes Peak highway and Colorado good roads in general. It is hoped to have at least 12 cars on the trip. In speaking of the plan, Mr. Curtis said:

"We have all the scenery and attractions necessary for tourists, with a perfect climate, and now all we have to do is advertise them. The sociability run will attract the attention of the people to Colorado, the Colorado's good roads, and the enthusiastic people the state has to boast for it."

Mr. Curtis agrees with T. G. Ehrhart, state highway commissioner, in the belief that at least 100,000 people will come to the state in automobiles this year. That is allowing four people to a car, or a total of 250,000 cars. The new national park will be an added attraction, he said, and combined with good roads should prove one of the greatest drawing powers in the state.

Letters were read at the meeting from various good roads organizations along the proposed route of the sociability run by Secretary A. W. Henderson. Fair weather conditions in April, but said it would be better to postpone the trip until later in the summer. It is essential, however, for the purpose of boosting the highway and bringing people here, that the run be held early in the spring. April 8 was fixed as the definite date.

CIVIL SERVICE BOARD FILES ANNUAL REPORT

Sixteen Examinations Held During Year; Highest Mark 99 Per Cent; Lowest 18

The civil service commission conducted 16 examinations during 1914, according to the annual report of Secretary R. P. Van Hook, filed yesterday with the city clerk. The commission had an appropriation of $250, but half of its fund during the first year, and it finished the year with a deficit of only $100. The members of the commission are R. C. Wright, president; George W. Bierbauer and E. P. Hufferd.

The report shows that during the year 16 examinations (three promotional and 13 for original appointments) were held. A total of 131 applications were received for positions in the competitive class. Eight of these were declined because of the inability of the applicant to measure up to the physical standard, and one because the applicant was not a citizen of the United States. Of the 123 called, 101 appeared. 98 finished the examinations, and 53 passed and were placed on the eligible lists.

In the noncompetitive class 108 applications were received for positions as laborers and 51 were employed. At the close of the year there were 114 applications for labor positions on file. The highest mark made in any examination was 99 per cent in the examination for roadman. The lowest was 18 per cent for patrolman.

POLICE ARREST 16 IN GENERAL ROUNDUP

Sixteen men were arrested yesterday in the roundup of vagrants by the police, all being located in a cave near the Midland tracks in the southeastern part of the city. The cave, which the men termed their "palace," was well stocked with food and there seemed to be plenty of food in the larder. Several of the men said they had been living there all winter. The cave has been enlarged through the work of inhabitants, and there were several large sleeping "porches" and card rooms in connection. It was named the "Hotel de Gink" after New York's I. W. W. hostelry.

WOMAN COULD HARDLY STAND

Because of Terrible Pains. Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I suffered from displacement and inflammation, and had such pains in my sides, and terrible backache so that I could hardly stand. I took six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I can do any amount of work, sleep good, eat good, and don't have a bit of trouble. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to every suffering woman."—Mrs. HARRY FINE, 1625 Duane St., Nicotown, Pa.

A other Way an's Cvs. Providence, R. I.—"I cannot speak too highly of your Vegetable Compound as it has done wonders for me and I would not be without it. I had a displacement, bearing down, and backache, until I could hardly stand, and was threatened with a miscarriage. I took six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it helped me and I am in the best of health again. I work in a factory all day long and what I do for me. I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to my wife and I am sure it will do the same for her."—Mrs. A. J. LAW, 121 Lippitt St., Providence, R. I.

Have you any work for this man to do? A deserving case in which a widow with five small children and an aged mother is unable to get work. Has been brought to the attention of the Gazette by the Y. M. C. A. The man does not want charity, but work, and he will do anything that is honorable to secure money for the support of his family. It is hoped that there are some people in Colorado Springs who will be able to help this case and all those desiring to do so should telephone the Y. M. C. A., Main 104.

MIDWEST OIL EARNS $1,148,458 IN 1914; NET, $449,552.62

Annual Report Issued Yesterday Shows Operations in Salt Creek Field

The Midwest Oil company, which operates in the Salt Creek field of Wyoming, earned $1,148,458.87 during 1914, according to the annual report of the president, L. L. Aitken, made public yesterday. Against this was charged $698,908.25 for expenses and cost of crude oil, leaving net earnings of $449,552.62, from which dividends aggregating $250,000 were paid.

At the beginning of the year the credit balance on the books totaled $1,358,000.95, which with the year's earnings produced a total credit surplus of $1,807,553.87. From this, these deductions were made: For depreciation, $388,677.84; cash investment in the part of the company's property sold last March to the Midwest Refining company, $928,549.11; and dividends, $250,000, a total of $1,667,226.95, leaving a net credit to January 1, 1915, of $230,326.92.

The assets of the company, as shown by the balance sheet, include cash, $42,820.88; cash in the sinking fund for the redemption of outstanding notes, $113,570.77; accounts receivable, $68,835.04; bills receivable, $11,055.24; crude oil on hand, $151,628.88; stocks and bonds of other companies, $194,253.80; real estate and leases, $5,249,985; and construction and property investment in the field, $1,000,000, a total of $6,771,145.66. Liabilities and accounts payable, $188,550.04; five-year 6 per cent notes, $900,000; bills payable, $102,000; capital stock, $6,000,000.

President Aitken states that the company holds a lease on 560 acres of patented land known as the Wyoming Central association land; it owns 120 acres in the east half of section 25, which is patented and known as the Stock Oil company land; and also has a lease on 240 acres of land in section 26, known as the school section, which belongs to the state of Wyoming. In addition the company owns about 1,200 acres of located land distributed in 40-acre tracts throughout the field, subject to certain reservations and charges in behalf of those from whom the property was acquired.

The officers and directors of the company are: L. L. Aitken, president; W. F. Schuyler, vice president; J. L. Warren, secretary and treasurer. These, with Orville L. Dineen and Robert de Pourtales, constitute the directorate.

Geronte, a nurse in the family of Geronte... Miss Clara Rabey

Lucinde, the daughter of Geronte... Miss May Snyder

Leandre, the lover of Lucinde... Mr. Jean Dupertuis

SYNOPSIS IN ENGLISH

Act I—Martine, the wife of Sganarelle, a woodcutter, is angry because her husband beat her, and is planning vengeance when she meets Valere and Lucas, servants of Geronte, has become the daughter of Geronte, has sent his servants to find a physician who can cure her. Martine tells Valere and Lucas that her husband is a famous physician, but that he practices his art only after having been well beaten. Sganarelle is beaten and taken to Geronte. Act II—Sganarelle gives a burlesque consultation and makes Lucinde laugh. The father is delighted, but Sganarelle is perplexed until Leandre, the lover of Lucinde, confides to him that the young woman is merely feigning dumbness to escape marriage with the man her father has chosen for her.

Act III—Leandre, disguised as an apothecary, enters the house of Geronte and speaks with Lucinde. The father hears his daughter speak, and is at first delighted, but he is soon thrown into dismay when Lucinde informs him, in a torrent of words, that she will marry no other than Leandre. Geronte begs Sganarelle to make her dumb again. Leandre flees with Lucinde, but returns when he learns that his uncle has died and left him his fortune. Martine enters and finds her husband, Sganarelle, who is about to be hanged for causing the abduction of Lucinde. But now that Leandre is rich, Geronte gives him his daughter and pardons Sganarelle.

Turks Will Offer Stubborn Resistance at Constantinople

WASHINGTON, March 4.—American Ambassador Henry Morgenthau is endeavoring to arrange for the definition of a neutral zone at Constantinople for the protection of foreigners and non-combatants in the event that the allied forces reach the Ottoman capital.

The American government was advised of this in official dispatches today. Extensive measures already have been taken by the Turkish government for the protection of foreign and native population. It was said plans are in operation for a stubborn defense of all the outlying positions along the Straits of Marmora and the approaches to Constantinople. Fortifications are being erected and the activity of the Turkish forces is such that there is no question, according to official dispatches, of the intention of the Ottoman government to make a desperate fight against the invading forces.

WARRANT ISSUED FOR WERNER HORN'S ARREST

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., March 4.—A warrant for the arrest of Werner Horn, who tried to destroy the international railroad bridge at Vanclose on February 1, was issued by United States Commissioner Frank L. Washington here today. The warrant is based on the indictment of Horn by the federal grand jury in Boston for the alleged illegal transportation of dynamite in interstate commerce.

It is expected that the arrest will be made in March next Sunday when Horn completes his sentence of 30 days for damaging property on the American side of the boundary. Horn claimed that he was an officer in the German army and that his attempt to dynamite the bridge was an act of war against Great Britain.

Dandruff Soils Ruins the Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff. For it will start your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to destroy it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arsenic; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely destroy and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

Baby of Future is Considered

Much thought has been given in late years to the subject of maternity. In the cities there are maternity hospitals equipped with modern methods. But most women prefer their own homes and the towns and villages must suffice them. And since this is true, it is true that a mother's health is a great help to her baby. They were of the wonderful relief, how it seemed to allow the mother to spend without undue strain during the period of her pregnancy. "Mother's Friend" and the broader knowledge of them should be a helpful influence upon babies of the future. In a little book for such women, there are more thoroughly discussed, out and a copy will be sent to anyone who will send us their name and address. # YANKEES IN EUROPEAN WAR ZONE HARD FIGHTERS

Foreign Legion Best Unit French Have; Phil Rader of Chicago Tells of Reckless Life of the Outsiders Who Enlisted Under the Tricolor Banner to Fight

LONDON, March 4.—Always ready for a fight, or a frolic and the greatest fighting unit of the French army, is the description applied to the French-American foreign legion by one of its members, Phil Rader, Chicago journalist, artist and soldier.

Back on a furlough from the trenches, where, sometimes, waist deep in water, the troops huddle from the terrific rain of artillery fire, the Chicagoan today painted an intimate word picture of the type of men who have adopted the grueling life of the present war.

There are Americans in the service from every part of the United States and from every walk of life," said Rader today. "I think the most interesting of the whole lot I met was Eugene Jacob, whose wife is running his butcher shop in Pawtucket, R. I., while he fights for France."

Went to Avenge His Honor.

"Both he and his wife were born in Belgium. When the Germans raided that country his wife wouldn't let him go to war, even when she learned that the little village that was her birthplace had been burned. But the next day, when the word came that his own former home had also been destroyed, Jacob told his wife that he could stand it no longer. He took a boat, came over and enlisted."

"Jacob is the most fervent German-hater I know of. Even in the Christmas truce he refused to lay his feelings aside and just before we left our trenches to meet the Germans and exchange cigars and greetings he fixed his bayonet and said: 'What if I brought a single German into the trenches, he would kill him.' And all day Christmas he sulked. Then later one day a German who was drunk, wandered into our trenches and insulted us. We all respected his bravery and admired him. But not Jacob. He and the German had a fist fight in the trench, but afterward they shook hands and became friends. Jacob told the chap if he had whiffed he would have killed him, but that he had found he was a man, even though a German."

"Barrett Bonnell of Brooklyn was killed by a shell while I was near him. He told me he came to the war because his girl had told him to go out into the world and accomplish something. I don't know who the girl was, but she must be the coolest, quietest and bravest man in the legion."

A Peace Advocate Shot.

"Another American is from St. Louis, John Street, an evangelist. He grew very hopeful that a reconciliation was coming in the Christmas truce, when he smoked, walked arm in arm, and we smoked, walked arm in arm, and played with the Germans. The following day Street got out of his trench in the early morning and waved his hand to a German friend in a trench 50 feet distant. A bullet went through his head and he died."

"George Villard, a university negro, was our cook and a fine one. He was the best singer for hundreds of feet on both lines of trenches and the Germans loved his songs. He taught them to sing 'Sailing Down Chesapeake Bay.' One day a shell blew Villard's trenches to pieces and he was killed. Next day the Germans yelled to us to have George sing. When we told them that he was dead they yelled back that they were sorry, as all of the riflemen in the trenches had agreed not to shoot the cheerful black man who sang so well."

Rader was mentioned in dispatches for destroying a straw stack in which four German machine guns had been hidden. Rader and two companions fastened beet leaves to a gunny sack and dumping it on the straw stack through a beet field and set fire to it. For 47 days, Rader says, he was in trenches filled with water and mud.

Noisy Ones Break Down.

"I've got some new ideas about so-called bravery now," he explained. "It is all a matter of nerves and experience. The fellow who is quietest and perhaps the most scared on his first day in the trenches often proves to be the best soldier in the end. The fellow who comes in with a great hullabaloo of noise often breaks down. An English socialist came into our trenches one day and shouted as he began firing: 'This is what my hands and heart have longed for.' Our colonel told us to watch him, saying that the

Lime-Loss in Tuberculosis

In the Journal of the American Medical Association (January 17, 1914), was the following:

"It has been many times stated that in tuberculosis an increased amount of calcium (lime) is lost both in the urine and feces. In fact, a demineralization has been thought to be a forerunner of the development of tuberculosis."

"Forced feeding of tuberculosis patients and the enormous amount of eggs and milk once given such patients are not now considered advisable by large number of physicians who are specializing in the treatment of pulmonary tuberculosis."

If tuberculosis is due to a loss of lime from the system, the success of Dickman's Alternative in the treatment of this disease may be due, in part, to the fact that it contains a lime salt so composed with other valuable ingredients as to be easily assimilated by the system. It is a fact that Dickman's Alternative is a food in addition to a rest and proper diet, some effective remedial agent seems to be needed and in numerous cases of advanced recovery from tuberculosis and kindred throat and bronchial affections Dickman's Alternative has supplied this need.

It does not contain opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs. It is safe in use. Your druggist has it. Write for it or order it direct from the Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa.

reaction would soon set in. Sure enough it did. The new comer, after firing steadily for an hour, began to complain of cold and was soon shivering with a nervous chill. He was sick for four days. We had many similar cases. It is the so-called 'rotter' that makes the best soldier. The men who come bravely into the war zone to fight into society become cool, calm and steady when they come under fire.

"The thing that impressed me most in the trenches is how human nature becomes stronger than military rules. In the railroad yard near our trenches was a huge pile of coal. We used to go out at night and eat our supply of food. After a few nights it developed that the Germans were doing the same thing. One night a squad of six of our fellows came upon a squad of eight Germans carrying coal sacks.

"What's the use of fighting?" asked the Germans. "You've no guns, neither have we."

Broke a Coal Pile Truce.

"And afterward it came to be understood that no man going for coal was to be fired on. One night a new comer in our trenches who hadn't heard of the arrangement went out with a pistol and killed a German. When he came back we severely pummeled him for violating the coal pile truce. After that neither the Germans nor ourselves dared to go to the coal pile for fuel."

With Rader on furlough is F. B. Towle of Larchmont, N. Y., who is a son of Capt. F. B. Towle of the New York state militia. He has been serving with the second regiment of the foreign legion.

"The most extraordinary American in our regiment," said young Towle, himself a New York guardman, "was a hulking youth from Chicago named Simons, better known as Athos, a wrestler. He left our trench and caught a huge German between the lines one night. They wrestled for a long time and finally Athos threw the German, knocking him senseless. Then Athos ran back to the trench, and carried him back into our trenches. For this he was made a lieutenant and given a reward of $30. He spent the reward for a feast for his men."

Rader said that there were only 388 men left in his regiment of the foreign legion out of a total of 1,500 when it went into service. He says that it was possible to walk to a point 125 miles distant without leaving the trenches.

Made Half a Million

by Graft in Chicago;

Then Fled to Mexico

CHICAGO, March 4.—Edward Rice, who is said to have made an elaborate confession to District Attorney Macley Hoyne involving nearly a score of Chicago detectives in a grafting conspiracy, is a rich man, and has a fine home in Oakland, Cal. Edward Fleming, Hoyne's secretary, said here tonight.

Rice came back from Tia Juana, Mexico, after it was said, he had agreed to make a confession under what amounted to a promise of immunity from prosecution. Several times he had escaped arrest by slipping over the border at El Paso or other places.

"Rice is worth $500,000," said Fleming. "He made it mostly in connection with gambling ventures. He ran what is known in the underworld as a 'gray' joint. Such places are devoted to the division of whatever graft is collected. The division of spoils in confidence games went as follows:

"Fifty per cent to crooked police; 45 per cent to the streeteer who discovered the person to be fleeced, and 10 per cent to the 'gang' which performed the operation."

Mrs. Rice, according to Fleming, came here and arranged for the confession.

Goes to Help Friend

Out; Gets Arrested.

Himself Needs Help

CHICAGO, March 4.—Patrick Berrell, business agent for the Truck Drivers and Chauffeurs union, went into court today to help prove an alibi for his friend, Andrew J. Burns.

Barred with being one of three men who had held up and robbed 15 men of $1,600, Burns left the witness stand. Berrell was in need of an alibi himself.

"That's right, judge," said Berrell familiarly as he took the stand. "That's another of the robbers."

CHILD GETS SICK CROSS, FEVERISH IF CONSTIPATED

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach or bowels

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 30-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Adv.

END OF WAR NOT YET IN SIGHT--COBB

Neither Side Near Victory, Says Noted American Journalist

CHICAGO, March 4.—"The end of the war is not in sight. It will continue until the losing nation is exhausted. The winner will be mortgaged for a generation, and God help the loser. If Germany is driven within its own borders, it will make a Southern Confederacy finish. It will fight till every man is dead and all its means have been consumed on the sacrificial pyre of its national spirit."

Irvin B. Cobb, America's premier war correspondent and at other times leading humorist, arrived this morning to deliver lectures on the war, and expressed these opinions.

It Has Revivified France.

"How long will the war last?" he was asked. "Nobody can tell. For years. How many years nobody can foretell. It may end like it began—suddenly. There may be a wave of nationalism that will displace the homicidal militarism that may call a halt to the carnage out of pure horror. But that is not the story of nations whose history pages have been dipped in their blood."

"Frightful as war is, I believe it is designed for ultimate good. Some progress toward human welfare will come out of it. France already has been revivified. That country was regarded as decadent. It is now regenerated. Win or lose, France will come out of the war a greater nation."

"I believe that the fighting forces are fewer than the combatants claim, and their losses are greater than they will admit. Many more than a million men have been killed. The truth will never be known about the real number of soldiers, and the actual losses in this war."

Germans the Best Soldiers.

"After it is ended there will be the usual distortion of facts, exaggeration of numbers and concealment of failures by the history writers."

"The economic conditions of the countries are deplorable. When peace resumes it will take a quarter of a century to repair the destructive work of the armies."

"The most soldierly and efficient of the fighters are the Germans. Individually they are the physical superiors to their enemies. As to military efficiency they excel in every particular. The Russian soldiers that I saw were well clad and fed and belied the stories about their unfitness."

None Wants America's Enmity.

"None of the contestants wants the hostility of the United States, but they are all war mad, and in sheer desperation may do anything irrational."

"The situation is one that calls for all the delicacy of diplomacy and wisdom of judgment of which our statesmen may be capable. If we are not cautious and extremely tolerant, we may be plunged into the storm of human madness at any moment."

Justice of Peace Loses Court Money at Poker and Has to Go to Jail

LOS ANGELES, March 4.—A victim of poker at which he is said to have lost $20,000 in the past two years, George Melrose, an aged farmer, justice of the peace at Burbank, was indicted today on a charge of having embezzled the majority of the fines in the past year. He spent last night in jail after he had tried first to shoot the officer who arrested him, and then tried to commit suicide.

W. W. Melrose, a son had removed the powder from the cartridges in his father's revolver.

STANDARD OIL STEAMER DETAINED BY BRITISH

LONDON, England, March 4.—The Standard Oil company steamer Florio, bound for Malmo, Sweden, has been detained at Kirkcubbin, Scotland, on an invoice of admiralty officials pending an investigation. The Florio, a steamer of 2,200 tons, under command of Captain C. W. Miller, was built at Baltimore and February 1, bound for Malmo and Helsingborg.

COSTS ONLY 2 CTS. TO BAKE LOAF OF BREAD

New York Bakers in Combine to Raise Price of Their Products

NEW YORK, March 4.—Herbert B. Lanyon, a baker, testified here today that although flour cost him more than $7 a barrel, it cost him only 2 cents and a fraction to bake a loaf of bread, that he sold it wholesale at 8 1/2 cents to the grocer who sold it retail at 4 cents. Lanyon appeared as one of 50 retail dealers summoned in a hearing instituted by the state attorney general to find out why the cost of bread went recently from 4 to 6 cents a loaf. The majority of the retailers examined today testified as to whether they had been asked by the wholesalers to raise the price of bread from 5 to 6 cents.

"Spiro Kochovas, owner of two groceries, testified that he had been instructed by a driver for the Ward baking company to raise his retail price of bread to 6 cents. James Theodore, another grocer, testified that drivers for both the Ward and the Cushman baking companies said to him on the day bread went to 6 cents: 'If you won't sell our bread at 6 cents we will refuse to supply you further.' Other grocers who received bread from the Ward concern said the latter's drivers had not asked them to raise the price of bread. The hearing ended today. Of its results, A. L. Becker, deputy attorney general, who conducted it, said:

"The investigation has acted as a deterrent against abuses in raising the price of bread, or what I might term unlawful practices. In fact, the investigation may have caused the abandonment of the causes that led to the recent rise in price. I believe that a decrease in the price of bread will be brought about much sooner than might otherwise have been expected."

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray, also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home. Which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. You will get a large bottle for about ten cents. Everybody uses this old famous recipe because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By making the gray hair disappear and giving another beautiful dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

3,000 Cars of Wheat Stored at Atlantic Port

JERSEY CITY, N. J., March 4.—A heap at the West Shore railroad yards at Weehawken of about 3,000 large mostly loaded with wheat, is attracting the notice of many interested persons. The wheat is being stored here because of the fact that the grain elevators at the port have been closed during the last few days, and the grain is being stored here until the elevators are reopened.

Before the grain was stored here, it was being stored at the Atlantic City wharves, but because of the fact that the wharves were being used for other purposes, the grain was moved to the West Shore railroad yards.

The grain is being stored here until the elevators are reopened, and it is expected that it will be shipped to other parts of the country within a few days.

DR. HAYES WILL RECOVER

VICTOR, March 4. Dr. A. I. Hayes, who was seriously injured when he lost control of the steering gear of his auto, and the machine ploughed over a high embankment on Fourth street in a recent racing crash at the Red Cross track, is expected to recover.

The doctor is expected to recover within a few days, and it is expected that he will be able to return to his normal state of health within a few weeks.

NEW YORK POLICE WORKING ON MANY ANARCHIST PLOTS

NEW YORK, March 4.—The existence of many plots on which the police have been working was made known today in a statement by Arthur Woods, police commissioner, in commenting on the indictment by the grand jury of Frank A. Carbone and Charles Carbone, charged with attempting to explode a bomb in St. Patrick's cathedral on Tuesday.

Commissioner Woods said that so far as this case is concerned, it does not go beyond the Carbone brothers, but that there were other plots and other men which the police were watching. The commissioner indicated that "Smoking Policemen," the young patrolman responsible for the arrest of Carbone and Carbone, might have a part in exposing other plots.

Justification for placing the bomb in St. Patrick's was summed up by Alarino with the brief statement that "he wanted to put a bomb in some rich neighborhood so that the rich would understand the difference between the poor and the rich."

"I plead guilty to the plot," Alarino said when asked to plead. "I did not mean to do any harm. I was there, but it was all the idea of this other man," referring to Anselmo Polignone, Carbone's supposed plot of not guilty.

District Attorney Parsons stated today that he would move to have Alarino and Carbone tried as soon as possible. The men will be brought to trial at a later date, and the police will be formally charged with the plot which was formerly entered and caused assigned to them if they have not made other arrangements for their defense before that time.

COL. GOETHALS PROMOTED TO RANK MAJOR GENERAL

WASHINGTON, March 4.—Colonel George W. Goethals was nominated today to be a major general in recognition of his services in building the Panama canal.

Four other nominations for promotions of officers associated with the Panama canal were presented today. The same time and all were unanimously confirmed in an open session of the senate.

The other nominations were: Brigadier General William C. Goethals to be major general; Colonel H. H. Dodge to be major general; Colonel William L. Sibert to be major general; and Colonel H. H. Dodge to be major general.

The bill providing for the promotions extends the thanks of congress to the officers.

Minute Brew

A COFFEE SUBSTITUTE
25c

Here is one of the delicious substitutes for coffee we carry for those who are prejudiced against that berry.

It can be made instantly and is valuable for that reason to campers picnic parties or affairs where quickness and ease of preparation is an essential.

Economical it is too as one can will make 65 cups.

Most Unusual Values in These New Spring Suits at $15, $16.50, $17.50, $18.50

WE ARE ANXIOUS for every woman in Colorado Springs and vicinity to see these smart new Spring Suits we are featuring at $15.00, $16.50, $17.50 and $18.50. We believe they are the greatest values ever offered at these prices. We KNOW we, ourselves, have never had anything to equal them. No woman who has the least desire for a new suit this spring should miss this opportunity.
Come in for a look, anyway.

The first thing you'll notice about these Suits is their exceedingly clever style and then you'll be impressed by the high quality of the materials and the splendid finish. They were made by tailors who make only high-class garments, and they have not slighted a single detail in their making.

THE COATS are in the new short styles, some with belts, button trimmed. Skirts are in the latest flare models. Colors: Navy, Belgian blue, sand, putty, black, also neat checks. Be the first to see these wonderful values at $15.00, $16.50, $17.50 and $18.50.
See Window Display.

New Crepe de Chine Waists $3.25

SIX EXTREMELY stylish models in Crepe de Chine Waists. Simplicity is strongly in evidence in these new, attractive styles, prominent among which are the military tendencies, the new standing collar, the reversible collar that can be worn standing or rolled, plain pearl and novelty buttons, small tucks or em-brothered effects. Still others with just a little dainty lace trimming. Colors are maize, putty, flesh, battleship gray, sand, light gray, white, black, etc. They are exceptionally good values at $3.75.

Paul Jones Middy Blouses $1.25 to $3.50

There is nothing prettier, more suitable, or quite so becoming for outdoor wear than the Middy Blouse. For tennis, golf, tramping or motoring it is supreme.
They are breezy and unconventional, but absolutely nice, and its a clearer picture.

PAUL JONES MIDDY is the Original Middy Blouse.
They are made in the factory which makes the blouses for the U. S. Naval Academy, thus making these garments absolutely uniform.
We are showing them with long or short sleeves, in white, pink, tan and navy, also white with blue, red, black or striped collars. Prices $1.25 to $3.50.

Bungalow Aprons 65c, 75c and $1

We want to impress you with the fact that we now have the largest and most complete line of Bungalow Aprons that we've ever been able to show. More styles, better styles and better values. In fact, we believe them to be the best values obtainable.

THEY ARE made of good quality ginghams and percales, in good colors and neat patterns.
Short sleeves and some with no sleeves at all, elastic belt and plain band belt. Neatly finished with piping and bands of contrasting color, some with embroidered edge. Matters not whether you have one room or the whole household to look after, you will want one or several of these practical aprons. Moderately priced at 65c, 75c and $1.00.
See Window Display.

Our Popular "Lavender Top" Hose 35c; 3 Pairs $1.00

THIS IS OUR SPECIAL QUALITY, and we believe it to be the best Hose on the market at the price. It is an excellent quality Cotton Hose, with double sole, spliced heel and double top, and is highly recommended for good wear. It comes in black only. Has a lavender band top. Is why it is known by that name.

We have many patrons who wear this Hose almost exclusively, and they say it's the best wearing Hose, holds its shape, and is the best looking Hose they have ever bought for. 35c
3 pairs for $1.00.
